—George Beasley and Miss Vernie Leach, both of Forbes, went to St. Joseph Friday last and went up to the recorder's office and secured their license to become husband and wife. We extend congratulations.

—The coming home this week, from Brussels, of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Raider, by Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Roberts, is anxiously looked forward to. Mrs. Raider is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Roberts and the couple have been in Belgium the past year taking a musical course from some of the world's masters.

—The Priests of Pallas have on hand a limited number of post cards representing last year's floats, 15 in number. Any reader of this paper may obtain a set free of charge by sending name and address with a copy of this notice to the Priests of Pallas, Kansas City, Mo. Parade this year October 5th, 1909.

—C. D. Zook has returned from Johnstown, Pa., where he and Mrs. Zook visited relatives. Their daughter, Miss Mary, came from Vassar College to Johnstown to spend her spring vacation with them. Mrs. Zook remained for a few days' visit with her niece, Miss Anna Curry, who is attending Northwestern. She will return home the last of the week.

—George R. Murray and family left this week for Ochiltree, Texas, stopping over Sunday in Kansas City with Mrs. Murray's relatives. Mr. Murray has bought a section of land three miles south of Ochiltree, the county seat of Ochiltree county. The land is partly improved and lies well. We are very sorry to lose this estimable family, and our best wishes follow them to their new home.

—In our own little city, all of the churches, excepting the Christian church, had their special services of prayer and song on Sunday last, to take part in the universal rejoicing for Christ's resurrection. The absence of Elder Dawson on account of his sister's death in Kentucky, is the cause of there being no services at the Christian church. It is on the streets of Jerusalem, however, that the most pretentious ceremonies are held on Easter Sunday. Jerusalem is the mecca of the Christians in Europe at Eastertide.
